INTE 31356:Software Development Project - Rubric for Final Presentation

#	Criteria	%	Excellent (9-10)	Good (7-8)	Needs Improvement (4-6)	Poor (1-3)	Nothing(0)
1	Completion of Requirements	5	All core functionalities, optional functionalities, and non-functional requirements are covered.	All core functionalities and optional functionalities are covered, but non-functional requirements are not covered.	Only core functionalities are covered.	Few requirements are covered.	No requirements are covered,
2	Identification of the Business Process	10	All Design documents are included and updated.	All Design documents are included but not updated.	All design documents are not available.		No design documents are available.
3	End Product	35	The end product is working and demonstrated properly with realistic features, including reports.	The end product is working, but not features are not realistic	Core features are not working. Reports are not available	Only a few features are working.	Not a working product.
4	User Interface & User Experience	10	The user interface should be valid with proper controls. UIs are designed to	UIs are not simple and unnecessarily complex but consistent.	UIs are not consistent.
5	Presentation	5	The presentation includes all the necessary information about the software functionalities,	The presentation includes all the necessary information about the software functionalities, but some important aspects may be missing or poorly presented. The information is mostly	The presentation is missing important information about the software.	The information is unclear or poorly presented.	No attempt is made to present information about the software design project.

				clear and concise.
6	Q&A	5	The presenter made a satisfactory effort to answer questions and provided accurate answers, which demonstrated deep understanding and good communication skills.	The presenter made a satisfactory effort to answer questions and provided accurate answers, which demonstrated deep understanding.	The presenter made a satisfactory effort to answer questions and provided accurate answers.	The presenter did not make a satisfactory effort to answer questions.	The presenter did not make any effort to answer questions.
7	Report (Marks will be given By the Supervisor)	20	The report is well-organized and provides comprehensive and detailed information on the topic. The information presented is accurate, relevant, and effectively supports the report's purpose. The report includes appropriate references and citations where necessary.	The report is well-organized and provides a good amount of information on the topic. The information presented is mostly accurate and relevant and supports the report's purpose. Formatting should be improved.	The report provides incomplete or unclear information on the topic. The information presented is inaccurate, irrelevant, or does not support the report's purpose. The report lacks appropriate references and citations.	The report is poorly organized.	No attempts are made to provide comprehensive and detailed information on the topic or the report is not submitted.
8	Meetings with the Supervisor (Marks will be given By the Supervisor)	10	The student is well-prepared for the meeting, having thoroughly researched and documented his/her progress, challenges, and questions. He/she has a clear agenda and are ready to discuss specific topics in detail.	The student mostly conducts professionally but may not show appropriate respect for his/her supervisor's time or expertise or may be distracted or unresponsive to feedback. The student is mostly punctual and attentive.	The student does not conduct himself/herself professionally, showing disrespect for his/her supervisor's time or expertise.	The student is often late, distracted, or unresponsive to feedback.	No contact with the supervisor